THE PROCLAMATION.

I, the undersigned, Mayor of Bonne Terre, do hereby proclaim and declare that the day of Monday, April 27, 1914, shall be a day of public mourning in the City of Bonne Terre, Missouri, in honor of the late John W. Helber, mail carrier on the Bonne Terre Rural Route, who was killed in a collision with a car near St. Louis, Missouri, on Thursday, April 24, 1914.

All citizens are requested to cooperate with the Board of Aldermen and other officers, in cleaning the streets and alleys. Each person owning or leasing the tenant of any property within the city, is requested to take a personal interest in cleaning or having such property cleaned.

All stables, stable lots and hog pens, should be cleaned thoroughly, and opened, if possible, to permit the sun to dry up all damp places. Tins, cans, waste paper, loose rocks, glass, chinaware, etc., of all kinds, lying in back yards, alleys or streets should be placed in receptacles convenient to be reached. All brush, not serviceable about the premises, should be burned.

Low places should be drained, and any places being damp or emitting offensive odors should be disinfected thoroughly and all cess pools, cut houses and other similar places should be cleaned and thoroughly disinfected by the use of carbolic acid, lime or some other disinfectant.

The city wagons will call for and haul away all trash and refuse properly placed in receptacles and located convenient for loading. Your refuse should be collected on Tuesday in the wagons may begin work early Wednesday morning. Cinders and ashes will be hauled away, provided the quantity in any one pile amounts to at least a wagonload and they are piled where the wagons can readily reach them.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas, W. A. Rieley Jr. and Annie Rieley, his wife, by their certain deed of trust, dated the 7th day of September, 1912, and recorded in the Recorder's office of St. Francois County, Missouri, in book 10, at page 254, conveyed to J. C. Tucker, as trustee, the following described real estate, situate, lying and being in the County of St. Francois, and State of Missouri, to-wit:

Lot and right with all buildings and improvements thereon in and to that piece of ground known as lot No. One (1), block eighteen (18), as shown on a plat of a portion of Flat River, Mo., made by the Doe Run Lead Company.

Which said conveyance was made in trust to secure the payment of a certain promissory note in said deed of trust described; and whereas, by the terms of said deed of trust said note is past due and remains unpaid, now, therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said note, and in conformity with the provisions of said deed of trust, I, the undersigned trustee, will, on Saturday, May 9th, 1914, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the south front door of the Courthouse in the City of Farmington, in said St. Francois County, Missouri, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the foregoing described real estate, to satisfy said note and the cost of executing this trust.

R. C. TUCKER, Trustee.

April 10th, 1914.

BIDS CALLED FOR.

The County Court of St. Francois County, Missouri, at its session in the month of March, 1914, ordered that what is known as the Old Plank Road should be dressed with crushed rock, and what is known as the Perrine Road should be dressed with gravel; and, again, at its session on the 8th day of April, 1914, ordered the undersigned Highway Engineer to receive bids for the performance of said work.
